DESIGNED IN SWITZERLAND

- Three devices at once! With rich charging output of 2100 mA, there is enough power to charge, for example, a tablet PC and a smartphone via the two USB ports, while the adapter can be used to connect a two-pole device.
- The patented system of slide-out power plugs to suit the power sockets in different countries allows safe, reliable connection in over 150 countries around the world – the multinational socket layout supports devices on a global basis.
- The World Adapter MUV USB complies with all relevant international standards and norms. This makes it unique in terms of user safety and device protection.
- The fact that it has been designed in Switzerland guarantees outstanding quality, exclusively produced by a Swiss company in Thailand in compliance with the strictest production standards.
